

Brief Profile

Dr. A.M.SURESH (b.1966) is currently the Principal & Director of NIAM Institutions, Bangalore. He is also the Director-South India of NIAM, New Delhi and is responsible for promoting industry integrated management programs in association with two leading Universities of India. Earlier he was the Professor & Director of Bangalore Institute of Management Studies, Bangalore. He has previously worked as Professor & Head of Department-MBA at Dayananda Sagar Institutions and Deputy Director-Academics at AMC Group of Institutions, Bangalore. He has 17 years of academic experience and 6 years of corporate experience in office automation and construction materials industry.

He holds an MBA degree from University of Mysore, Mysore and has received M Phil degree and PhD in Management from Alagappa University, Karaikudi. He is a state rank holder at 12th level and a recipient of gold medal from University of Mysore at undergraduate level of education. His areas of interest are Strategic Marketing Management, Human Resources Development, Business Ethics, Entrepreneurship and Management Education. He has published papers in different journals, participated in various seminars, workshops and conferences. He has guided 12 research scholars for M Phil program and is currently guiding 6 research scholars for doctoral program. He is on the Panel of Examiners for postgraduate and research programs of Universities, Autonomous Institutions & Professional bodies. During his tenure in different capacities, he has organized several academic programs on different areas of management for the benefit of students, participants & fellow academicians. As a teacher, he has always put in his best efforts in shaping the students to be true management professionals. He is also involved in social activities in his own way.

He is a Fellow of Indian Academy of Social Sciences, a Fellow of Institute of Marketing Management, a Fellow of United Writers Association, a Professional Life Member of AIMA, New Delhi and AIMS International, Houston. He can be reached at drsuresham@gmail.com